DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 2/13/2006 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 41, 43, 55, and 58-63 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art teaches the use of a digital camera having an image capture unit, a memory for storing captured images, an image compression unit and an image display unit adapted to display the captured images. The prior art further teaches the use of including an arbitration circuit within a digital camera to specify the priority of requests for accessing the memory. The prior art teaches the use of an arbitration circuit which assigns a highest priority to a process of storing newly captured image data into memory. Followed by a process of refreshing the memory and lastly the lowest priority is given to a process of requests from an image processing circuit to perform compression and other image processing function. However, the prior art does not teach the use of an arbitration circuit for a digital camera which assigns a higher priority to a process of providing image data from the image capture unit to the memory over a process of refreshing the memory and over a process of accessing the memory by the control unit. The prior art further does not teach the arbitration circuit assigns a higher priority to a process of refreshing the memory and a process of accessing the memory by the control unit over a process request of performing a compression operation. Therefore, the claims are allowed over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
